NYC's Only Rotating Restaurant is Back!

Dining in Midtown just got a major upgrade! The View, NYC's iconic rotating restaurant atop the New York Marriott Marquis, has officially reopened under the direction of Danny Meyer's Union Square Hospitality Group.

Perched on the 48th floor, this revamped dining destination offers breathtaking 360-degree skyline views, a 20-seat bar and lounge, a raw bar, and a full-service restaurant featuring live music. Inspired by American supper clubs, the menu includes refined classics like tuna carpaccio, lamb chops, seared duck breast, and of course, New York cheesecake for dessert.

Brandy Library: A Tribeca Classic for Spirit Lovers

If you're a fan of Scotch, whiskey, brandy, and fine spirits, Brandy Library is a must-visit. A Tribeca staple since 2016, this spot isn't for everyone, expect premium pricing, especially on simple drinks. But for those who appreciate expertly curated pours and knowledgeable "librarians" behind the bar, it's an unbeatable experience. With its warm ambiance and top-tier service, Brandy Library remains a standout for spirit enthusiasts in Manhattan.

NYC's Coolest New Medieval-Themed Cocktail Bar

Step into Monsieur, the East Village's newest cocktail bar, designed by none other than Baz Luhrmann, so you know the interior is just as dramatic as his films. Think gothic, medieval, and bohemian vibes, with a touch of theatrical flair.

Brought to you by the team behind The Nines, Monsieur opened late January and is already making waves. Whether you're here for the ambiance or the expertly crafted cocktails, this is a must-visit spot for anyone looking for a one-of-a-kind night out.

NoHo's Coziest New Wine Bar

From the team behind The Nines, Elvis is the latest must-visit wine bar in NoHo, bringing French-inspired charm to the historic Great Jones Cafe space. With a curated selection of natural wines, expertly crafted cocktails, and a menu featuring anchovies, cheese, and escargot, this spot is perfect for a cozy night out.
